

Legislature

JANET HARTSOCK

It seems I say the same thing each time, but I stress enough how important it is for Veterans and their spouses to know what is happening in the government. Both at the Federal and State levels. Check the national AL web site and the ALA one.

Also plan event that teach children how the government works and stress the importance of being informed.